Polycom CX200 IP Phone Microsoft Lync (OCS)

The Polycom CX200 IP Phone is designed to work with Microsoft Office Communicator 2007 enhancing the unified communications experience with superb call quality.

Polycom CX200 key Features

- Ease of provisioning ‐ Seamlessly integrates with and complements the capabilities of Microsoft Office Communicator Server 2007.
- Hands-free freedom ‐ Hands-free, clear one-on-one calls or group conversations with full duplex speakerphone mode.
- Superb voice quality ‐ High-quality, high definition wideband audio for the best possible voice call quality.
- Enhanced presence indicator ‐ Monitor presence status to efficiently route calls.
- Intuitive to use - Convenient buttons and integrated functionality to pick up and hang up calls, control volume, switch between handset and speaker phone mode and mute the microphone on the active call.
- Calls forwarded, voicemail and message waiting indicators keep users up to date with their communication service status. Plug-and-play operation to a USB port on the PC.

The Polycom CX200 IP Phone gives users the ultimate in calling convenience from their Office Communicator 2007 enabled computer. With its sleek, high-quality handset and its full duplex, hands-free speakerphone, the Polycom CX200 IP Phone enables crystal-clear, natural conversations without echoes or feedback.

The Polycom CX200 IP Phone includes keys for controlling volume, mute speakerphone mode and use of an external headset. LED indicators provide the user with call forwarding status and message waiting indication. A large LED conveys the presence status of the user. The Polycom CX200 IP Phone connects and powers through an integrated USB cable for easy installation and use, so there are no extra cables to carry.

The Polycom CX200 IP Phone is optimized for Office Communicator 2007 and is compatible with Microsoft Windows XP or Microsoft Windows Vista operating systems.
