Product Name: Elmeg IP290 IP Telephone
Manufacturer: Elmeg
Model Number: -

Availability: DiscontinuedFor a high quality similiar alternative please see the Snom 300The Elmeg IP290 encompasses the important aspects of demanding business customers using the latest VoIP technology. Fitted with a two-line graphical display, the IP290 supports alphanumeric caller ID and a feature-rich user interface.An extra Ethernet port for the enables users to "daisy chain" the phone with their PCs without the necessity for an extra LAN socket. For hands-free operation a standard PC headset can be used. Using SIP, the IP290 interoperates with equipment with standard compliance from other vendors. Advanced features like call pickup and parking or automatic call-back are implemented using latest standards.The programmable keys make the IP290 quick and easy to find numbers and initiate calls. Support for SIPS and SRTP allow voice conversations on a very high security level. The various support avenues of NAT standards allows the operation in all environments where VoIP is possible.Features • Dual Ethernet port (network/PC) • 3 softkeys and 5 programmable function keys • Headset connection • Hands-free calling (full duplex) • Telephone directory with 100 entries • List of accepted calls (100 entries) • Putting on hold and transferring of calls • Integrated music on hold (only with SIP) • Downloadable ringing tones • Caller-specific ringing tones • Call forwarding • Completion of call on busy subscriber • Block and single number dialing • Automatic adding to numbers • Speed dialing • Caller list • Compatible with different languages • Locking of anonymous callers possible • List of accepted calls (100 entries) • Display of calls in queue • "Presence" display • Receiving of "instant messages" • Compatible with Microsoft® Windows Messenger® • VMail and SMS (RFC3265) • Display with 2x 24 characters and graphic panel • RFC 326-compatible SIP stack • UDP and TCP • Digest authentication • Static IP and DHCP • http and https for configuration files • Automatic software updates • Integrated HTTP server • Completely configurable via Web link

Price: £90.00